

Rural Palliative Care Project Forum: shaping primary health care in palliative care

December 3 – Day One

Plenary Session	8.45am		Registration
	9.30am	Dr Michael Taylor, Chair RPC Project Management Advisory Group	Introduction
	9.35am	Dr Michael Taylor	Acknowledgement of country
	9.37am	Mr David Butt, CEO AGPN	AGPN and RPC Project
	9.55am	Ms Donna Daniell, CEO Palliative Care Australia	Future directions for palliative care in Australia and the linkages with proposed health reforms within the primary health care setting
	10.30am	Morning tea
Plenary Session	11.00am	Assoc Professor Rohan Vora, Palliative Care Specialist	Ensuring quality in palliative care
	11.35	Dr Mark Boughey, Director Palliative Care, St Vincent's Palliative Care Services	The importance of the general practice and specialist partnership in palliative care in rural and remote Australia
	12.05		Speakers/MAG panel: Questions & Answers
	12.30pm	Lunch
Workshop	1.30pm	Ms Liesel Wett, Deputy CEO AGPN	Table top presentations: Palliative care in the country: RPC Project experiences
	3.00	Afternoon Tea
Plenary Session	3.30pm	RPCP Evaluators	Group in depth discussions
	5.00pm	Dr Michael Taylor	Close
Scheduled Interviews	5.10 – 6.00pm	Individual General Practice Network and MAG interviews with RPC Project Evaluators
Forum Dinner	7.00 – 10.30pm	Neat casual, no theme

Rural Palliative Care Project Forum: shaping primary health care in palliative care

December 4 – Day Two

Plenary	8.45am	Mr Vlad Aleksandric, Deputy CEO Palliative Care Australia	Summation from previous day
	9.00am	Assoc Professor Peter Hudson, Director Centre for Palliative Care Education and Research	The carer's perspective: needs and wants versus what we get Where do people really want to die? The burdens of the carer
	9.45am	Mrs Debbie Rigby, Consultant Pharmacist	Quality use of medicines in palliative care
	10.20	Morning Tea
Workshop	10.45	Dr Michael Taylor, Chair RPC Project MAG	"Let's get real": The how to and practical tips for sustainable outcomes for the RPC Project
	12.45pm	Lunch
Plenary session	1.45pm	Ms Melissa Cumming, Clinical Nurse Consultant Cancer and Palliative Services, Greater Western Area Health Services	The role of the specialist palliative care nurse in remote Australia
	2.15pm	Ms Cindy Paardekooper, Senior Aboriginal Health Educator, PEPA NT	The role of the NT PEPA Senior Aboriginal Health Educator, working with primary health care providers in support of palliative care in rural and remote Northern Territory
	2.45pm	Professor Jane Phillips, Palliative Care Nursing, Cunningham Centre for Palliative Care, University of Notre Dame	Writing for reports and dissemination
	3.15pm	Dr Michael Taylor	Official Close
	3.30pm	Afternoon Tea	